

I'm writing to protest Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air Stolen Honor as a news show. I was surprised to read about it since I understood that this kind of show, especially near an election, should be balanced with equal time.

I've read about this as a local Iowa issue, and heard that it's true in Ohio as well, and perhaps nationwide, all the more reason to address it on a national level.

Thanks for the chance to comment.